Interestingly, the phrase "fish for people" actually comes from Herodotus, a Greek historian from 430 BC, who described how the Persian armies swept through the Greek Islands by linking hands and marching in a line through the entire land.

~ Herodotus, "History of the Greco-Persian Wars."

SAMARITAN
Counseling • Guidance • Consulting

Samaritan Counseling, whom we support, is still offering counseling through video and telephone therapy. They have found that many need help especially through these difficult times. All insurances cover these tele-therapy sessions, and both UPMC and Highmark are now covering copays during the COVID-19 crisis. Also, you don't have to live in the area to be helped by their therapists. They can work with anyone in the state of Pennsylvania by video or phone. Samaritan also offers client aid for those who may not have adequate insurance or funds. If you, or someone you know, is struggling and needs to speak to a therapist, please contact Samaritan at 412-741-7430 or through their website at samaritancounseling.net.
